Purchaser must arrange for disposition of the animal at this time. No switching of animals is allowed. NO EXCEPTIONS.

All auction "live" pickups will be released on Sunday, March 11, 2012 from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

A deduction of 6½% of the Sale Price of each animal sold at the auction will be withheld. Four percent is donated to the Junior Livestock Foundation and used for capital improvements to the Fair facilities, and two and one-half percent is used for auction, auction-related livestock show expenses, promotion and buyer appreciation. As required by the State of California Audit Office, an analysis of the auction expenses must be done to ensure the reserve has adequate funds. These percentages of withholdings may change as a result of this analysis.

The animals being sold at the Large Animal Auction must have been shown and judged in the junior market divisions at this year's fair and the exhibitors must have participated in showmanship. All Group 1 (Gold Ribbon) market animals may sell through the auction. Exhibitors may sell only one animal through the Livestock Auction/Barn Sale. Exception to this rule is the requirement that all blanketed animals must be sold in the auction. This does not apply to breeding animals, only to market animals. FFA and 4-H members must walk their own animal in the auction, except in the case of illness or other valid reason accepted by the livestock superintendent prior to the auction. Exhibitors that choose not to go through the auction or are unqualified to go through the auction and do not wish to sell their animals through the Barn Sale may not remove their animals until the posted release times.

Blue and red ribbon animals will be sold in the barns. All barn sales must be concluded by 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 10, 2012. Animals not sold by 8:00 p.m. must pay 6½% of buy back price before Livestock Superintendent releases the animal for removal from the fairgrounds.

The exhibitor will be responsible for the proper care (including feeding, watering, and bedding) of their animals until delivery to purchaser on Monday, March 12, 2012 at 6:00 a.m. Exhibitors failing to properly care for their animals will for the first infraction receive a written warning and the animal must be cared for immediately; second infraction will result in a $100 fine to the exhibitor; and the third infraction will result in mandatory removal of the animal from fairgrounds or an additional $100 fine and forfeiture of any Auction and/or Premium money.

The Livestock Superintendent may send any animal home at any time. Any fines not paid will be deducted from the sale check. A $25 fine will be imposed for late delivery or improper delivery to the designated disposition point.

Declare animals to be sold in Live Auction and Barn Sale (both Large and Small) one hour after the exhibitor's last specie is shown. Every exhibitor must declare intent to sell with the Livestock Office by 5:00 p.m. on Sunday or they will not sell. Monday afternoon the sale order will be posted on the livestock bulletin board for review. Exhibitors are responsible to verify that the information is correct and to notify the Livestock Office of any corrections by the posted deadline. Any changes pertaining to non-declaration on the exhibitor's part will carry a $50 fine. NO EXCEPTIONS.

There will be no changes once sale order goes to printer.

There will be no soliciting of any animal that has been taken home prior to the Small Animal Auction, Large Animal Auction, or the Barn Sales. Anyone caught soliciting the sale of an off-site animal will be removed from the premises and may not be allowed to return in the future.

THANK YOU LETTERS

All participants in the Junior Livestock Auction and Barn Sale are required to write a thank you note to both their main and add-on buyers. Junior Livestock Auction buyers support and advocate youth large and small animal projects. Please take the time to thank them properly for their continued support and generous contributions.

(Note: Some buyers do not remit payment until a thank you letter has been received.)

JUNIOR LIVESTOCK AUCTION

BANK LOANS

Through the generous donation of local banks, some exhibitors have the opportunity to get a loan for their annual project. The 45th DAA would expect a member to pay back their loan in a timely manner and will communicate with the banks regarding check distribution. If a member fails to pay back their loan, he/she will jeopardize their future participation in the Fair's junior livestock program.
